EDUCATION

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Ph.D. candidate in Computer Science

Advisors: Prof. Stephen M. Pizer

Research Area: Computer vision, machine learning, medical image analysis

Aug. 2018 - Present

Chapel Hill, NC, USA

Tsinghua University

Bachelor of Engineering in Automation

Cumulative GPA: 87/100, Major GPA: 89/100

Aug. 2014 - Jul. 2018

Beijing, China

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Research Assistant, Department of Computer Science

Advisor: Prof. Stephen M. Pizer

May 2020 - Present

Chapel Hill, NC, USA

- Real-time 3D reconstruction using deep learning and simultaneous localization and mapping (SLAM) methods, applying to colonoscopy videos.
- Deep learning for image enhancement, applying to colonoscopy video frames.
- Developing geometric algorithms for evaluating the reconstructed 3D colonoscopic surfaces.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Research Assistant, Department of Computer Science

Advisor: Prof. Mohit Bansal

Aug. 2018 - May 2020

Chapel Hill, NC, USA

- Focusing on vision and language grounding problems, i.e., vision-and-language navigation (VLN) and visual question answering (VQA) tasks.
- Improving the generalizability and interpretability of multi-modality neural models, with the techniques such as object detection, semantic segmentation, knowledge graph and commonsense reasoning.

Advisor: Prof. Alexander Tropsha and Prof. Mohit Bansal

- Medical concept normalization and relation extraction in social media posts with machine learning and natural language processing techniques.

University of Southern California

Research Intern, Department of Electrical Engineering

Advisor: Prof. C.-C. Jay Kuo

Jun. 2017 - Sept. 2017

Los Angeles, CA, USA

- Medical MRI image super-resolution with signal processing and generative adversarial networks.
- Medical MRI image segmentation with deep neural networks.

Tsinghua University

Student Member in Team Tsinghua-A

Advisor: Prof. Xiaowo Wang and Prof. Zhen Xie

Sept. 2015 - Nov. 2016

Beijing, China

- Modeling synthetic biological processes using information theory.
- Participated in iGEM 2016 Competition, project wiki: <http://2016.igem.org/Team:Tsinghua-A>.

Tsinghua University & Beihang University

Research Assistant, Department of Electrical Engineering

Advisor: Prof. Yonggang Guan and Prof. Junmin Zhang

Jun. 2015 - Apr. 2016

Beijing, China

- Wavelet transform in cables' fault detection.
